

GUTHRIE
THEATER

A Shakespeare Symposium

APRIL 19-21, 2024

Join us for an immersive weekend of Shakespeare inspired by the History Plays (Richard II, Henry IV and Henry V). Artists, educators, theater fans and all who are interested in Shakespeare are invited to explore how the leadership and power dynamics portrayed onstage play out in our world today.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Friday, April 19

- 5:00 p.m. Event Registration
- 5:30 p.m. Bard-Inspired Pub Trivia
- 7:30 p.m. Richard II Performance

Saturday, April 20

- 10:30 a.m. Keynote Speaker: Emma Smith (Virtual)

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

- 1:00 p.m. "Uneasy Lies the Head": Practices and Forms of Leadership
- 2:10 p.m. "Seize the Crown": Shakespeare Histories and Game of Thrones
- 3:20 p.m. "My Unthrifty Son": Family Dynamics and Building Future Leaders
- 4:30 p.m. "I Hardly Yet Have Learned": Tools for Teaching Shakespeare
- 7:30 p.m. Henry IV Performance

Sunday, April 21

- 10:30 a.m. "How'd They Do That?" Workshop
  - 1:00 p.m. Henry V Performance
- Following the performance, a post-play discussion and closing toast will conclude the weekend.

TICKETS AND REGISTRATION

- Experience all three plays plus the symposium starting at $116
- Symposium-only tickets are $50

Register at www.guthrietheater.org/historyplays or call the Box Office at 612.377.2224 or 1.877.447.8243 (toll-free).

Performance ticket prices vary based on seating area. Handling fees apply.

This event is presented in partnership with the Department of English at the University of Minnesota.

Sponsored by

