

GUTHRIE THEATER

Photo and Video Policy

The Guthrie Theater is open to the public, and guests are welcome to take photos and film videos while following the guidelines below.

Inside the theaters

While photographing actors onstage is not allowed at any time, taking photos of the set is allowed pre-show, post-show and during intermission. If you post to social media, we encourage you to tag @GuthrieTheater and include the scenic and lighting designers listed on the credits page in the play program. Video or audio capture of any performance is strictly prohibited. The Guthrie reserves the right to request disruptive patrons leave the theater at any time.

Personal and noncommercial photography

Photographers are welcome to use our public spaces free of charge for personal and noncommercial use (e.g., portraits, weddings) with the following restrictions:

- Photography must not interfere with Guthrie events or pre-show activity in the lobbies.
- For the convenience and safety of our guests and audiences, photography must cease one hour before showtime. Please check the performance schedule at guthrietheater.org before scheduling your session.
- Photographers must be self-contained with no additional or free-standing equipment (e.g., tripods, lights, electrical cords).
- Moving furniture and climbing in or on the window boxes is strictly prohibited.
- Personal and noncommercial photography may not be published, sold or otherwise distributed for commercial purposes.

Professional and commercial photography

All professional and commercial shoots (e.g., advertising, architectural and fashion photography, filmmakers, production companies) generally require a 30-day notice. Applicable fees will be determined on a case-by-case basis.

To inquire about using the theater for an upcoming project, please email press@guthrietheater.org.

NOTE: The Guthrie reserves the right to terminate any photography or filming on the theater's property deemed inappropriate or intrusive.
